

Weber Center to show PBS Vietnam preview September 11

This is an 18 hour documentary event entitled, "The Vietnam War". It will premiere on Wisconsin Public Television at 7pm on Sunday September 17th, 2017. The Weber Center for the Performing Arts is inviting the public to a free 60 minute preview of the film starting at 7pm on Monday September 11th, 2017 at the Weber Center, 428 S. Front St. La Crosse, WI. There will also be a veteran panel following the screening discussing their experiences both during and after the war. Vernon County's very own County Veteran Service Officer, Jim Young will be on the panel. Seating for the viewing and panel is on a first come first serve basis, no ticket or RSVP is necessary. Those attending the screening may also view an exhibit entitled "A Face for Every Name". This exhibit shows missing in action or killed in action Wisconsin service members who served in the Vietnam War. The exhibit will be on display at the Weber Center from September 8th through the 14th. (The La Crosse Tribune)
